Welcome

to the 2017 DC Shorts Film Festival

REETINGS!

G As we embark on our 14th film festival, I am continually, pleasantly overwhelmed with the innovative and powerful films that the world's filmmakers are creating and submitting.

DC Shorts Film Festival continues to be recognized by MovieMaker Magazine, USA Today, and Washington City Paper Reader's Poll as one of the best film festivals in the world, and named a finalist for the 31st and 32nd Annual Mayor's Arts Awards.

DC Shorts champions short films and the filmmakers who create them. We believe in the power of short films to democratize filmmaking, permitting diverse voices to be heard from around the globe. DC Shorts proudly serves to present these voices to vast audiences every year in a welcoming, thought-provoking, and lively multi-day event filled with filmmakers, industry leaders and film lovers alike.

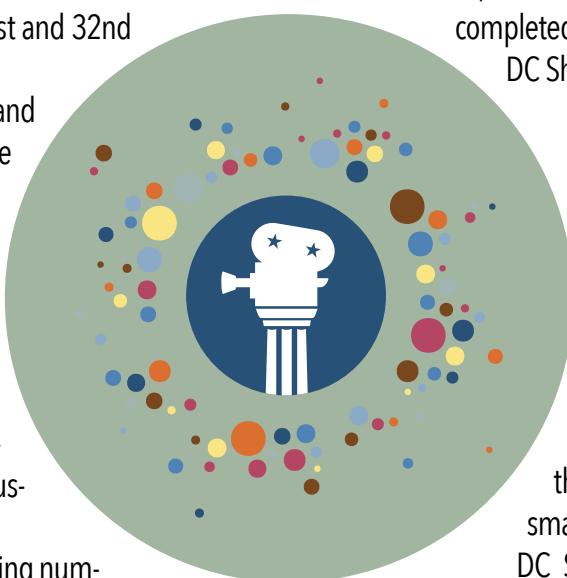

This year we reached a record-breaking number with over 1,500 film submissions. You will have the opportunity to watch nearly 170 films from over 30 countries in 17 different showcases of shorts in every conceivable genre and style, plus special screening blocks spanning topics as diverse as creative expressions of differently-abled individuals, issues that are creating a challenging social and political climate to LGBTQ issues, and African American experiences.

Our 11-day event will feature filmmaker Q&As and industry workshops, including free networking Events for those in the film industry, such as a Tech Talk Series, an app launch, and a speed networking event. Experience our free outdoor screening, our free lunchtime screenings, or our free children's screenings at a library in each ward.

And you can't forget to attend the PARTIES! The festival will present three public parties in various locations, from

The Rooftop at Carroll Square to Dupont Underground, where filmmakers and film lovers alike can mingle and celebrate.

Wrapping up the festival is the DC Shorts Screenplay Competition where the audience is privy to a table reading of six selected screenplays (from over 70 submissions), for which they will then vote. The audience-selected winner receives $2,000 cash and automatic entry for their completed film to screen at an upcoming DC Shorts Film Festival.

The ALL-ACCESS FESTIVAL PASS allows you to enjoy all the fun at every screening, party, and workshop! For those unable to join in person, many films will also be available in The DC Shorts Online Film Festival accessible through a computer, tablet, or smartphone.

DC Shorts has always been honored to feature and support truly independent films and filmmakers. As always, I look forward to you joining us for 11 days of pivotal, poignant and award winning films, filmmaker conversations and celebrations.

Let the films begin!

Kimberley

Executive Director

Government of the District of Columbia

OFFICE OF CABLE TELEVISION
FILM, MUSIC AND ENTERTAINMENT

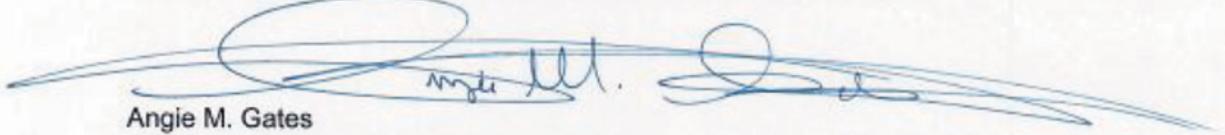

Welcome!

On behalf of Mayor Muriel Bowser, I welcome you to Washington DC's 2017 DC Shorts Film Festival and Screenplay Competition, where filmmakers, writers, and patrons alike are honored and celebrated.

Filmmaking is a vital component to the District's creative economy and the DC government is excited to support your talents and passions. Mayor Bowser designated September as 202Creates Month, the city's annual celebration of our vibrant creative economy -- showcasing artistic people, places, and jobs in the District. The DC Entertainment Office is a proud partner of the DC Shorts Film Festival, which is an integral part of 202Creates initiative.

Heralded as the 'Coolest Short Film Festival' in the country, it's easy to see why: there's something at DC Shorts Film Festival for everybody to enjoy.

Thank you for your contributions to making DC a leading film capital!

Festival Highlights

SEEING EVERY FILM AT THE THEATER IS NOT ALWAYS POSSIBLE – we are showing a staggering 90+ films! Plus, the DC Shorts Online Film Festival is a fantastic way to watch many of the films in the comfort of your home – or on the run using a smartphone or tablet. MORE INFO ON PAGE 19.

We're presenting eleven SPECIAL SHOWCASES during the festival week. A stellar Panel Discussion and Film Screenings in conjunction with Reel Abilities Film Festival of Northern Virginia. Look for Showcases around the themes of Families, Animation, Topics in the News, Life Cycles, Foreign Films, Documentaries, GLBT, African American, Comedy, and a Salute to Canada to celebrate their 150th Birthday. MORE INFO ON PAGE 53.

The DC Shorts Screenplay Competition is an incredible evening of live script readings where the audience determines the winner of a $2,000 grand prize! This year's group of six diverse finalists – chosen from more than 70 screenplay submissions – come from all over the country. MORE INFO ON PAGE 20.

Our parties have become legendary! They're a great place to meet filmmakers and make new friends. Join us for our SUBTERRANEAN SOIREE GRAND BASH at one of D.C.'s hottest venues, The Dupont Underground, and take in the stars at THE CITY VIEW PARTY which overlooks the city from a private downtown rooftop. MORE INFO ON PAGE 21.

In 2014, DC Shorts facilitated the organization of the first short film festival in Sunderland, England – one of D.C.'s sister cities and the ancestral home of George Washington. Join us for our year three showcase featuring the BEST OF THE SUNDERLAND SHORTS FILM FESTIVAL and see what our neighbors across the pond chose as their top films. MORE INFO ON PAGE 51.

DC Shorts proudly presents jury and audience awards to our top films. These shorts are programmed into two BEST OF DC SHORTS showcases screening at the Miracle Theatre on Capitol Hill on September 16th and 17th. It's a great way to conclude the week – and catch the selections that might go on to win that special golden statue! MORE INFO ON PAGE 24.

TICKETING POLICIES

ONLINE SALES

Tickets may be purchased via our ticketing partner, TicketLeap. We recommend you either print your tickets at home/work, or use TicketLeap's app to present a "selfie ticket." If you forget your tickets, or do not have access to a printer, don't worry, we can still check you in at the door.

IN PERSON SALES

To purchase tickets and passes in person, please visit the DC Shorts Box Office at each venue. Box offices open 30 to 45 minutes before the first event of the day, and close 30 minutes after the last event begins. DC Shorts accepts all major credit cards and cash. No checks.

EXCHANGES AND REFUNDS

All ticket and pass sales are final. There are no refunds or exchanges of tickets, party or festival passes. Please familiarize yourself with our Seating Policy. No refunds for late arrivals.

SEATING POLICIES

All ticket and pass holders must be seated 15 minutes prior to showtime to be guaranteed a seat. After that time, pass holders will be admitted with the general audience on a space-available basis.

- 20 minutes before each showcase: Pass holders and filmmakers are admitted to the theater.
- 15 minutes before each showcase: Ticket holders are admitted to the theater.
- 10 minutes before each showcase: Unclaimed seats are sold at the theater door for $15.

A standby line will form 45 minutes before each screening time. What are your chances of getting in? Pretty good – we usually release a minimum of 20 to 40 tickets at the door.

We know that mistakes happen. If you present a ticket purchased in error, we will make every effort to accommodate you at another screening of your choice on a space-available basis. Visit the box office for details.

Come join us and the Golden Triangle BID in Farragut Square (1700 K Street NW) on Thursday, September 14th for our first Outdoor Screening, featuring films from Japan, Germany and US. The screening starts at 7:20 p.m., so make sure to arrive early with your picnic blanket to grab a good seat!

BEAR (BÄR)

GERMANY • 2014 • 8 MINUTES • DIRECTOR: PASCAL FLOERKS

My grandpa's past was always very present. It would break through in something that he would say or do, but he would never talk about it. Only now, by revisiting his life and personality as I knew it, do I feel the weight of his inheritance.

IT WAS DAMP, DARK, AND SMELLED LIKE WOOD

GERMANY • 2016 • 13 MIN. • DIRECTOR: PETER MEISTER

The last 12 minutes before the Greek heroes are going to leave their wooden horse to conquer Troy.

ZOMBRIELLA

GERMANY • 2016 • 15 MIN. • DIRECTOR: BENJAMIN GUTSCHE

Eight-year-old Miko has attracted the attention of little Zombriella, who follows the boy doggedly.

HOMEWORK

GERMANY • 2016 • 7 MIN. • DIRECTOR: ANNICKA PINSKE

A young father, his twelve year old daughter, one night club, two secrets and a lie that will solve everything.

SHABU SHABU SPIRIT

JAPAN • 2015 • 10 MIN. • DIRECTOR: YUKI SAITO

A fiancé, Keita, goes to meet the family, the father, Shozo, begins his secret appraisal – a test to see whether this fiancé is worthy or not of marrying his daughter. Trying to reduce the distance between them, the mother prepares a single nabe (cooking pot) for the shabu-shabu meal. As Shozo's eyes glint brightly, Keita reaches towards the shabu-shabu.

ROCK BOTTOM

AMERICAN • 2017 • 12 MIN. • DIRECTOR: STEVE RAY

Winner of 2016 Script to Screen Contest. A twenty something year old woman is brought out of her funk by the six year old boy she baby sits.

DC SHORTS® SCREENPLAY COMPETITION

THE DC SHORTS SCREENPLAY COMPETITION IS A VERY DIFFERENT KIND OF screenwriting competition. A panel of reviewers, consisting of filmmakers, screenwriters and critics, reviewed over 75 screenplays, and selected the top six to be performed for you.

After a table reading, the audience will vote for their favorite, and one lucky screenwriter will walk away with a $2,000 prize, sponsored by the Office of Cable Television, Film, Music and Entertainment. Screenplay winners receive $1,000 in seed money to start their project and another $1,000 in finishing funds when the film is completed. The completed film will screen at an upcoming DC Shorts Film Festival.

Meet all of the writers after the reading at the complimentary wine and cheese reception hosted by Tito's, Lagunitas Beer, Green Hat Gin, and Barefoot Wines.

Cinematic Conversations

TRENDING TOPICS IN FILMMAKING

This year we are re-imagining Mentors into a monthly seminar series called "Cinematic Conversations." "Conversations" will include trending topics, technique topics, and topics to provide you with the foundation to make better films. Taught by film professionals and peers, these interactive sessions are designed to build upon one another, developing the skills needed to better compete in the crowded field of filmmakers. Visit dcshorts.com/mentors for more information.

HOW TO WRITE FOR FILM

OCTOBER 14TH

NOON-4 P.M.

THE POTTER'S HOUSE

1658 COLUMBIA RD NW

TICKETS: $30

METRO: GREEN/YELLOW LINE (COLUMBIA HEIGHTS)

Every film requires a blueprint, or a script, to organize and guide the story. Scriptwriting is a skill necessary for any filmmaker looking to write their own films. DC Shorts' third installment in their Cinematic Conversations series, Film Writing, gives insight into the different kinds of film writing and how to master each one. Topics include writing from book to movie, writing for television, and writing for animation versus live action.

HOW TO MARKET YOUR FILM

NOVEMBER 18TH

NOON-4 P.M.

THE DC CENTER

2000 14TH STREET NW - SUITE 105

TICKETS: $30

METRO: GREEN LINE/YELLOW (U STREET)

You've made your film. You've spent countless hours perfecting it, and now it's ready to be seen. What now? How do you find your audience? DC Shorts' second Cinematic Conversations seminar – Film Marketing – teaches filmmakers the skills to attract their film's audience, including how to make a trailer, how to make a movie poster, and how to use social media to bolster your film's presence.

HOW TO FUNDRAISE FOR YOUR FILM

DECEMBER 9TH

10 A.M.-4 P.M.

THE DC CENTER

2000 14TH STREET NW - SUITE 105

TICKETS: $30

METRO: GREEN/YELLOW LINE (U STREET)

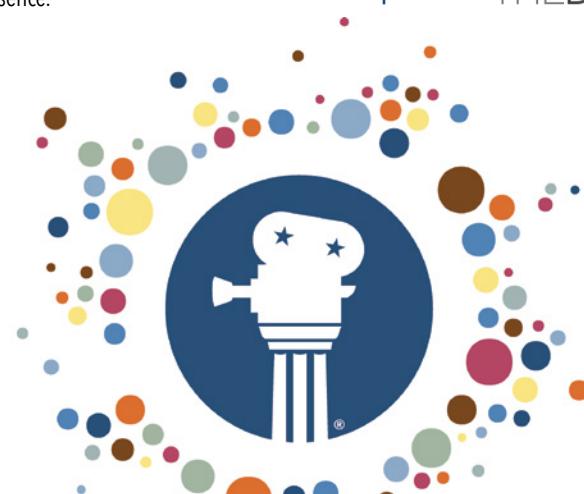

It's no secret that making a film is hard work. Of the challenges that plague filmmakers in making the journey from idea to film, one is almost always standing in the way of every filmmaker's goal: money, or lack thereof. DC Shorts' sixth Cinematic Conversations seminar, Film Fundraising and Finance, gives insight into the ways in which filmmakers can find money for their films, and how to use that money efficiently once they have it. Topics include government funding, foundation funding, and corporate support

FILMMAKING (IN SPANISH)

JANUARY 2018

Film is universal, and DC Shorts strives to support all areas of DC's community through our education programs. Our ninth Cinematic Conversations seminar - How to Film - teaches filmmaking basics for Spanish speakers. Topics include the basics of film technique, basic film equipment, and on set: cast and crew members.

 Make a Matching Gift! Workplace giving programs might allow you to double your gift—contact your company's Human Resources Department for specific details.

 Become a Partner/Advertiser! The Festival offers exceptional sponsorship opportunities to meet your organization's marketing and philanthropic goals. We also offer many advertising opportunities at our events, festival program guide, slide shows, website, and in our bi-monthly newsletter. By advertising, your organization will reach a community of loyal film fans and film industry professionals. For more information, email Managing Director Paul Marengo at paul.marengo@dcshorts.com.

About Us

DC Shorts champions short filmmaking!

THROUGH A SERIES OF REGULARLY SCHEDULED EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS, SCREENING OPPORTUNITIES, SHARING resources via online tools, partnering with film, arts and business organizations, and our annual DC Shorts Film Festival, DC Shorts provides opportunities for filmmakers of every skill level to explore and learn their craft, while entertaining and expanding the horizons of audience members. Founded in 2003, the DC Shorts Film Festival was created by DC-based filmmaker, Jon Gann, in response to the dozens of festivals where the focus wasn't on the filmmakers and their craft. He decided to start his own event, focusing on the form he loves: shorts.

Founded in 2006, the DC Film Alliance is a non-profit, 501c-3 organization dedicated to strengthening the film and media arts community in the Washington, D.C. area. It brings together independent filmmakers and film lovers to participate in a wide range of multidisciplinary and educational programs throughout the year, including many DC Shorts programs (Film Festival and Screenplay Competition, DC Shorts WINS!, DC Shorts Mentors), and curates a comprehensive collection of online resources, including online tools and an up-to-date database for funders, vendors and publications. The organization has helped bridge the gap between other area film organizations, foster a community for regional film festival directors, and sponsored monthly salons to educate filmmakers of all levels. In response to the needs of the industry, DC Shorts has recently rebranded many DC Film Alliance activities, re-tooled others, and now hosts year-round programming.

OUR PROGRAMS

DC SHORTS WINS! are special showcases of award-winning films from previous DC Shorts – plus a few that we wish we had programmed. Some of the films have received Academy Award nominations. All of the films have won accolades worldwide.

DC LAUGHS are our favorite comedy films with live performances by the area's top stand-up comics! Each 90-minute show combines film and live performance for a spectacular and lighthearted evening. REAL2REEL is a collaboration between filmmakers and storytellers. Filmmaking teams have only five days to write, shoot, edit, and screen a film based on stories from eight local storytellers. The kicker: none of the teams had heard the stories before they were presented!

Through CINEMATIC CONVERSATIONS AND MENTORS, we encourage independent filmmakers to develop the skills to create outstanding media projects. Taught by film professionals and peers, these interactive sessions are designed to build upon one another, developing the skills needed to better compete in the crowded field of filmmakers.

DC Shorts is proud to present SEMINARS FOR THE FILM COMMUNITY on various topics including lighting on a budget, fundraising, contracts, film reviewing, and more. The DC Film Alliance works closely with other grassroots film arts organizations on mutual topics including submissions, promotion, development, and more. Once a year, the DC Film Alliance hosts a conference where invited film festivals can discuss these issues and how we can help one another better serve filmmakers.

FILMMAKER RESOURCES

@DCSHORTSTOOLS feed is a daily collection of jobs, casting notices, and events from over twenty D.C. area and national resources. The DC SHORTS TOOLKIT is an open email exchange to request information from other filmmakers, post screening information or even sell old equipment. The DC SHORTS ACTORS LIST allows casting notices to be posted to more than 2,000 D.C. and East Coast Actors.

OUR INITIATIVES

Local initiatives are programs, partnerships, film blocks, and panels that support the local film community. Youth initiatives are youth programs, partnerships, film blocks, and panels that expose and educate youth of all ages on film and filmmaking that not only educate, but inspire. Community initiatives are programs, partnerships, film blocks, and panels that support underrepresented and marginalized communities.

THE WILD PARTY

book, music and lyrics
by Andrew Lippa

Lovers Queenie and Burrs fan the flames of their romance by throwing the ultimate bash in their Manhattan apartment. Riding waves of booze and pulsating music, everyone abandons their inhibitions. This steamy prohibition tale of passion and insatiable appetites features a sensational score including jazz, vaudeville and gospel numbers.

Winner of the 2000 Drama Desk for Outstanding Music.

Jan 11 - Feb 11, 2018

THE SKIN OF OUR TEETH

by Thornton Wilder

In this wild and raucous tour of humanity through the ages, The Eternal Family is made up of George and Maggie Antrobus (married only 5,000 years), their children Gladys and Henry (perfect in every way), and their maid Sabina (the archetypal seductress). Together they survive an ice age, The Flood, and an apocalyptic war. When the world is in crisis, humor is as important as hope.

Winner of the Pulitzer Prize for Best Drama.

Partnerships

THE DC FILM ALLIANCE IS COMMITTED TO SUPPORTING OUR LOCAL film community. We create events with many of our programming partners to reach into the film, media, and entertainment communities of D.C. Such events include DC Laughs with Funniest Feds and WIFV, where Funniest Feds provides the gut-busting comedy, and WIFV and DC Shorts supply the gut-busting films. Our partnership with Story District for Real2Reel combines storytelling and filmmaking. Storytellers from Story District tell stories, and teams of our filmmakers turn those stories into a short films. Lastly, education has always been the forefront of what we do. This year we are happy to partner with many organizations to bring filmmaking and other important topics to the film and media community. We are always open and looking to engage and create new and different kinds of partnerships to improve and enhance our city through exciting and entertaining new programs.

DC SHORTS TRAVELS OVERSEAS WITH OUR INTERNATIONAL partnerships. Our goal is to provide a place of international exposure and conversation between our filmmakers and audiences from around the world, providing several programs for their work to be viewed. Two such programs include the Edinburgh Shorts in Scotland and the Sunderland Shorts in England. These festivals and DC Shorts exchange films to grant audiences films from each country. EuroAsia

Shorts, comprised of five European and five Asian countries, is our more in-depth approach to international involvement, which provides not only an exchange of films, but exposure to different cultural programming.

Our community partners allow us to co-promote our respective film festivals allowing for great community. This year DC Shorts is fortunate enough to have over 50+ community partnerships with film festivals, arts, and other organizations throughout the country and the world! Visit PAGE 6 for a full list of our all community partners!

JUST GO! (SARUJ JUST!)

DIRECTOR: PAVEL GUMENNICKOV, 11 MIN., COMEDY, LATVIA, DC PREMIERE

Inspired by the incredible true story of Just who lost both of his legs in a childhood accident. Just meets leva and they start a flirty conversation that is interrupted by two thieves, who rob leva. In the blink of an eye Just decides to follow the thieves to retrieve leva's bag and conquer her heart.

STRONGEST I'LL EVER BE

DIRECTOR: PHIL EBNER, 15 MIN., DOCUMENTARY, USA, EAST COAST PREMIERE

After being handed a heartbreak diagnosis of ALS, award-winning photographer Anthony Carbajal confronts the disease that robs him of his abilities and his future, in order to create a meaningful life during what time he has left.

THE REEL ABILITIES FILM FESTIVAL

was initiated at the JCC in Manhattan, in 2007. It was the first festival of its kind to present award-winning films by and about people with different abilities. In 2012, Cincinnati, Ohio was the first city to follow in New York's footsteps by hosting a ReelAbilities Film Festival. Since then, the festival has spread to over a dozen cities in North America, including a festival in Northern Virginia. Through film, art and discussion, ReelAbilities brings together the community to explore and celebrate the diversity of our shared human experience.
